Boogie Pimps

Its 4 hands, 2 heads, 1 mixer, ass shakin', record breakin', record makin', aaaannndddd it goes a little something like this ... -THE BOOGIE PIMPIN'-

On one of his many trips to the USA, Mark J Klak discovered New Yorks legendary "Tunnel", where inside the Bucketheads took to the stage.

From this one single experience came the turning point, the accomplished musician was converted to everything housemusic.

The life of a Dj started as the first priority while producing his own music and delivering it to the people continued to grow stronger and stronger.

Jon Henderson, the second half of the Dj/ Production duo, comes from Sydney. He has lived in Germany since 2006, working with Mark J Klak in the studio, and together they create the unique Boogie Pimps sound.

The Boogie Pimps shot to fame with the worldwide smash hit "Somebody to love" ... the gold record taking pride of place on the wall at the Pimps studio.

The follow up single "Sunny" also topped the British billboard charts. Four videos were produced for these 2 songs across 3 countries, Cuba, South Africa and the Uk. These videos have featured on MTV, VIVA and music video channels the world over ... stuff musicians dreams are made of.

Since then, the Boogie Pimps have consistently released fresh tunes on labels Ministry of Sound and Superstar Records and have been under high demand for remixes for the likes of Axwell, KLF, Jason Nevins and Rosenstoltz, mixes which feature on playlists of the worlds top djs.
